SUPPORT THE PASTORS

Maul, Molokal and Lanai solemnly me-mortalizes the churches and pastors of the three Islands, to-wit:
We believe it the duty of each

We believe it the duty of each Church so to love its pastor that it will pay the agreed salary faithfully and prompily: We believe it the duty of each pastor so to serve his Church in love that he will succeed in winning an affection which shall secure the full payment of the agreed salary.

Where it is found that the agreed salary cannot be paid, we believe it the duty of the church and pastor to con-sult with reference to the salary which the church can and will pay, and if this be too meager, that the pastor shall resign and seek another field shall resign and seek another field with the approval of the Association.

We believe that all real extate and invested funds belonging to churchas are a sacret trust which no board or trustees or church has any right either to alienate or with the exception of rentals and interest to apply towards the payment of the pastor's salary or any current indebtedness, and it is the duty of churches and board of trustees and intending sub-the approval of this Association.

We recommend that every church We recommend that every church consider the question of placing his property in the hands of the Hawaiian Board as Trustee for the Church.
